Sunday, May 1, was a beautiful morning for the May Crowning in which we honored the Blessed Mother with a crown of flowers recognizing her as the Queen of May. Some of our 1st Communicants, their siblings, mothers & grandmothers assisted by placing single roses at Mary's feet. Eliza Graham and her father PJ had the special honor of placing the crown on Mary. Thank you to everyone that participated.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us!

~OLPH Bereavement Ministry Discussion~

Father Brad would like to have a bereavement ministry established at OLPH. This is a beautiful grace that is provided to grieving family members. He would like to meet with members of the OLPH congregation that would be interested in discussing how this ministry could be started. Please contact Father Brad if you are interested. You may call the church office or email him at bdoyle109@gmail.com.
