Our first grade PSR class took a "field trip" to the new prayer labyrinth that was recently installed in the camellia garden in front of the new PSR building. Each student took turns walking the path, while the others were praying the rosary. They were so excited to have help from some of our 10th graders. Next time you are on the hill, come check out the labyrinth, which was donated in memory of Cecile LeBlanc.

Our kindergarten PSR class went on a scavenger hunt to church. They walked around to find liturgical items and learned the proper word for them. They got to hold a chalice and even ring the bells!

Sunday, February 18, our OCIA candidates along with other candidates from the BR Diocese, gathered at St. Joseph's Cathedral for the Rite of Election. Please join us in praying for our candidates as they continue their journey toward full initiation to the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil Mass.
